 - 4) The student body, by submitting a petition containing fifty signatures, may request the Senate to consider impeachment of a Senator.
 - 5) The senator being impeached shall be notified and presented with the proposal by the Chair of the Senate, in person, at least 48 hours prior to the meeting in which the motion will be presented.
 - a) If the SGA Vice President is being impeached the SGA President shall serve the notification.
 - 6) If the Vice President is being impeached the President will preside over the meeting while the impeachment motion is being discussed.
 - 7) Impeachment proceedings shall be held in executive session, as governed by Roberts Rules of Order.
 - a) Executive session procedures and questions shall be referred to Article XIV, Section G, Number 7 of the Policy Manual.
 - 8) Impeachment motions shall be voted on in the meeting which they are introduced.
 - 9) After the impeachment motion has been made, the senator in question shall be allowed five minutes to state their case against removal from office.
 - 10) During the vote, the senator in question shall leave the room.
 - 11) A two-thirds majority vote of Senate, taken anonymously, shall be necessary to successfully impeach a senator.
 - 12) Following a successful impeachment, senators are immediately removed from office and relieved of all official duties of that office. If impeachment does not result in removal from office, corrective action may be taken by the SGA President and Director of Student Activities.

Section F – Filling of Vacancies

- 1) Temporary Vacancies
 - a) Should an elected Senate position become vacant after the end of first semester, the SGA President and Vice President shall, at their discretion, either hold a special election or jointly appoint a student to fill said vacancy. Should a special election be called, normal rank choice voting procedures will be followed. In this case, the Vice President shall be responsible for overseeing the election and may adapt the election policies codified in these Bylaws and Policy Manual if necessary. Should a student be jointly appointed, appointment shall be subject to Senate confirmation.

- i) The SGA President and Vice President shall consult with the outgoing Senator before the election is chosen either by appointment or election. The new Senator may begin serving immediately upon election or appointment. If they have been appointed, they shall have no Senate, Senate Committee, or Faculty Committee voting rights until confirmed by the Senate.
- 2) President and Vice President
 - a) Should the SGA President be unable to complete the term of office, the SGA Vice President shall assume the office of the SGA President and shall appoint a new SGA Vice President. This appointment shall be subject to Senate confirmation.
 - b) Should the SGA Vice President be unable to complete the term of office, the SGA President shall appoint a replacement. This appointment shall be subject to Senate confirmation.
 - c) In the event that the SGA President and Vice President are simultaneously unable to complete their term of office, the following shall occur:
 - i) The Senate Parliamentarian shall become the Acting Senate Chair.
 - ii) The Acting Senate Chair shall convene a meeting of the SGA Executive Officers and Senate Advisors at the earliest possible opportunity. The SGA Executive Officers shall, by a simple majority vote, nominate a new SGA President.
 - (1) Each Elected Executive shall be entitled to cast exactly one vote, and Executive Officers who lack Senate voting rights shall not be entitled to cast votes.
 - (2) The Acting Senate Chair and the Senate Advisors shall have no vote in this meeting.
 - (3) Executive Officers may participate and vote electronically.
 - iii) The Executive Officers' nominee for President shall be confirmed by the Senate.
 - iv) The newly appointed SGA President shall fill the position of Vice President as outlined in Bylaws Article XIV Section F Subsection 2-A.
 - (1) The Parliamentarian shall relinquish the role of Acting Senate Chair of the Senate upon the confirmation of the new SGA Vice President.
- 3) Other Senate Vacancies
 - a) Should an elected Senate position become vacant after the end of first semester, the SGA President and Vice President shall jointly appoint a student to fill said vacancy. This appointment shall be subject to Senate confirmation.
 - i) The SGA President and Vice President shall consult with the outgoing Senator before appointing a replacement.
 - ii) The new Senator may begin serving immediately upon appointment but shall have no Senate, Senate Committee, or Faculty Committee voting rights until confirmed by the Senate.

- b) Should an elected Senate position become vacant during the first semester, a special election shall be called to fill the vacant position. Normal voting procedures will be followed. The Vice President shall be responsible for overseeing this election and may adapt the election policies codified in these Bylaws and the Policy Manual if necessary.
- c) Should an appointed Senate position become vacant at any point, the SGA President and Vice President shall appoint a replacement, subject to the standard rules and procedures regarding the vacant position.

Section G – Meetings

1) Presiding Officer

- a) The SGA Vice President shall preside over all Senate meetings. The initial meeting shall be called no later than one week following the fall elections.
- b) In the SGA Vice President's absence or desire to relinquish the chair to participate in the discussion on the floor, the SGA President shall assume the duties of the chair.
- c) In the event that their vote could affect the outcome, the presiding officer may cast a vote. In all other cases, the chair must abstain from voting.

2) Observers

- a) All open meetings of the Senate shall be open to all Senators, Senate Advisors, and any guests who wish to join.
- b) Guests of the Senate will be subject to the same parliamentary procedures as senators, including but not limited to:

 - ii) Only speaking twice per speakers list.

(1) Unless time is yielded to them, whereas the same rules for yielding time apply.

- c) Non-Senators will not be able to motion for any changes to a proposal, but can recommend that a senator does such.

3) Quorum

- a) A simply majority of senators present at a meeting shall be required in order to conduct official business.

4) Absences

- a) Senators may not exceed two unexcused absences per semester. Any senator who has exceeded two unexcused absences from regular meetings, as monitored by the SGA Vice President, will immediately be brought before the Senate for impeachment.

- b) In the case of a shared Senate seat, absences will be tracked independently for each member.
 - c) If an individual on the Senate has an academic conflict with Senate meetings that person may appeal to the Senate for permanent proxy for the remainder of the term.
 - d) Any combination of two arrivals or early departures in a semester shall count as one unexcused absence. Arriving after roll call is considered a late arrival, and leaving before adjournment is considered an early departure.
 - e) A senator whose absence is foreseeable prior to a Senate meeting is responsible for declaring an official proxy. Official proxies are declared by filling out a Proxy Notification Form with the SGA Vice President and the Executive Assistant prior to the meeting from which that member wishes to be excused. A senator may request a proxy no more than two times per semester and no more than once per Interim
 - f) Proper filing of a fully completed Proxy Notification Form excuses the specified Senator from attending the meeting specified on the Form. A Senator who does not properly file a fully completed Proxy Notification Form may still send a proxy, but will be recorded as absent should the Senators proxy be absent, arrive after roll call, or depart prior to adjournment.
 - g) Only full-time St. Olaf College students are eligible to serve as proxies at Senate meetings. A proxy is granted all voting privileges accorded to the senator for whom the student proxies, pursuant to SGA voting eligibility guidelines.
 - h) Proxies may not be sent to training or retreats. If a Senator cannot attend, this will be counted as an unexcused absence.
 - i) Members with two unexcused absences are required to meet with the Chair of the Senate and the SGA President to discuss their absences. The Director of Student Activities may also be present at this meeting. The Chair of the Senate or the SGA President may also call for such a meeting in the event that a member accumulates a substantial and inappropriate number of absences, excused or unexcused.
 - j) In the event of absences resulting from unforeseen or extenuating circumstances, the SGA Vice President may, upon consultation with the SGA President, excuse such absences.
 - k) Senators are personally responsible for understanding SGA attendance policy. Failure to read the attendance policy will not absolve members of responsibility to adhere to it.
- 5) Regular Meetings
- a) The schedule of regular meetings shall be approved by the Senate members at the first meeting of the year.
 - b) The Senate shall meet no less than twice monthly.

- c) Published schedules and agendas of meetings shall be made available to the St. Olaf Community no later than 24 hours before the meeting.
 - d) Senate shall meet no less than once per semester in a location other than the David E. Johnson Board Room. The schedule of locations shall be determined by the Senate chairperson.  - c) An all student assembly may be convened by the SGA President or by a majority vote of the Senate.
- 7) Minutes
- a) Minutes of all Senate meetings shall be recorded by the SGA Executive Assistant following the most recent version of Robert's Rules of Order.
 - b) Copies of the Senate minutes shall be filed in the SGA Office for future reference. The minutes shall also be made available to the St. Olaf community.
- 8) Rules
- a) From time to time the Senate may enact rules pursuant to these bylaws for the guidance, operation, and regulation of Senate business and functions.
 - b) Such rules shall be proposed at a Student Senate meeting and passed by a simple majority vote of the senators present at a meeting, providing a quorum has been established. Rules passed in this manner shall expire at the end of the meeting in which they are passed.
 - c) A rule may be repealed only by a majority vote of the complete Senate membership.
- 9) Fiscal Motions
- a) The Senate shall not vote on any fiscal motion during the meeting of its initial presentation.
 - i) A fiscal motion is one which involves Senate approval for spending of SGA Allocation monies.
 - ii) The transfer of funds from one SGA branch budget to another is also considered a fiscal motion.
 - b) This rule may be waived by a 2/3-majority vote as needed.
- 10) Amendments to the Bylaws
- a) A proposal to amend these bylaws may be submitted in writing before the Senate meeting at which point it will be considered. Such a proposed amendment shall be signed by five members of the Student Senate. No amendment shall be voted upon during the meeting at which it is proposed.

- b) The student body, by submitting a petition containing fifty signatures, may request the Senate to consider bylaws changes.
- c) A proposed amendment to these bylaws shall be adopted if it is approved by a two-thirds majority. The Senate does not need to approve changes in these bylaws associated with typographical, secretarial or other non-content errors.

11) Definition of Terms

- a) The use of the word “approval” in Senate business shall apply to a simple majority vote with respect to proposals, budgets and resolutions.
- b) The word “confirmation” in Senate business shall apply to a two-thirds majority vote necessary to allow a designee to hold an appointed position. Confirmation is the manner in which Senate authorizes the selection of members, the creation of committees and other actions taken by the SGA President and Vice President. Before the confirmation of an appointed student, Senate shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the appointed student. Voter anonymity will be upheld. .

Section B – Election Procedures

- 1) Candidates for the offices of SGA President and SGA Vice President shall file as a team on one petition. No person may file separately for either office without a running mate.
- 2) A President and Vice President team may not run jointly with another candidate, and must intend to be on campus the entire academic year, excluding Interim.

- 3) If no member of the student body submits a petition by the deadline, the election commission shall have the authority to postpone elections to a later date. If no person is elected to the specified position in the spring, the SGA President and President-elect shall appoint an interim person, subject to confirmation by the current Senate, until elections can be held the following fall. If no person is elected in the specified position in the fall, the SGA President may appoint someone to the office, subject to Senate confirmation at its first meeting of the year.
- 4) The winner of the final election for any given office shall be the person with the greatest number of votes on official ballots.
- 5) In the case of a tie, a special election shall be held for purposes of re-balloting for that office. If a tie occurs on the second balloting, the Senate shall vote to decide the winner of the election.
- 6) Elections shall be held under the following timeline:
 - a) Elections for SGA executive officers and faculty committee senators shall be held simultaneously and no later than May 1 of the year immediately preceding the year in which the senators will serve.
 - b) Elections for residence hall senators, the International Student Senator, the Honor House Senator, the Multicultural Student Senator, the Off-Campus Senator, and any other senators not elected during the previous spring shall be held no later than October 1 of the year in which the senators will serve.
- 7) All write-in candidates shall be subject to the rules established in the SGA Bylaws and Policy Manual. Before beginning to campaign, the write-in candidates must verify that they meet the minimum GPA requirement, and they must discuss general campaign regulations with a member of the Election Commission. Only candidates listed on the official election ballot may be allowed to post their official platform at the polling place.
- 8) All students are eligible to vote in online elections. If, however, online elections are not available, only students living on campus at the time of the elections are eligible to vote.
- 9) If any member of the Oleville Development Team is a candidate in the election, the Chief Technology Officer shall not allow said member to access election-related systems.

Section C – Non-Voting Member Selection

- 1) The following positions shall be selected in the spring of the year prior to the year in which the appointees will serve, coinciding with the spring Senate elections:
 - a) The Inter-Hall Council Chair shall be selected through an application and interview process in the Spring conducted by either the SGA President-elect or Vice President-elect, the IHC Advisor, and the current IHC Senate Co-Chair. To be eligible, an applicant must have prior Hall President experience.
 - b) The Student Alumni Liaison will be appointed by an application and interview process in conjunction with the director of APR, the former SAL and either the SGA President-elect or Vice President-elect.

- c) The SGA Marketing Communications Director shall be selected through an application and interview process conducted by the SGA President-elect and the SGA Vice President-elect, subject to Senate confirmation.
- d) The SGA Executive Assistant shall be selected through an application and interview process conducted by the SGA president-elect and the SGA Vice President-elect, subject to Senate confirmation.
- e) The SGA Chief Financial Officer shall be selected through an application and interview process conducted by the SGA Chief Financial Officer in conjunction with the SGA President-elect and the SGA Vice President-elect, subject to Senate confirmation. This process will be completed and a proposal will be brought to Senate no later than the last Senate meeting of interim.
- f) The SGA Chief Technology Officer shall be selected through an application and interview process selected by the SGA President-Elect and SGA Vice-President-Elect, and the current SGA Chief Technology Officer, subject to Senate confirmation.

Section D – Assumption of Office

- 1) All senators shall serve a term of one academic year, beginning in the fall of their election, unless otherwise noted.
- 2) A mandatory workshop shall be held for all senators for the purpose of instruction on basic parliamentary procedure and review of current bylaws. This workshop shall take place after the fall elections have been conducted.
- 3) All SGA executive officers shall assume their positions and responsibilities on June 1 following their election.

Article XVII – Disclosure of Information

Section A - Records and Information

- 1) All SGA records and information, financial or otherwise, shall be available upon request to any St. Olaf College student, except in the cases where information requested is of a sensitive or confidential nature. Requests from faculty, administrators, and parties outside the St. Olaf community shall be reviewed on an individual basis and granted or refused by the SGA executive committee.

Section B - Response to Requests

- 1) Every effort shall be made to provide the requested information in a timely manner. When possible, information shall be provided in the format requested, but alternative formats, such as large print, braille, or audio tape may incur additional expenses and/or return time. Multiple copies and exceptionally long documents may incur a reasonable expense for printing.

Section C - Noncompliance

- 1) Noncompliance concerns may be addressed following the grievance procedures set forth in these bylaws.

Article XVIII – Grievances

Section A - Overview

The Student Government Association shall be committed to treating students fairly in regard to their personal and educational concerns. Any student or organization that feels subjected to grievous treatment by any branch or member of the SGA may seek to have the grievance addressed in a fair and reasonable manner.

Section B - Formal Procedure

Students are reminded that a formal procedure for grievances can be found in the St. Olaf Student Handbook online. People with complaints or grievances that involve parties outside of the SGA should consult the college's grievance policy. For advice or questions about any grievance, students are strongly encouraged to consult with the Dean of Students Office immediately.

Section C – Grievance Procedure

- 1) If a student or organization feels that they have or the organization has been mistreated by any branch or member of SGA, the student or student organization's leader is encouraged to contact the SGA President or the Director of Student Activities.
- 2) Once a complaint has been made, the SGA President or Director of Student Activities shall arrange a meeting to resolve the complaint with the following:
 - a) The student or students who filed the complaint
 - b) Relevant SGA members, ie: the creator of the poster, the branch coordinator, branch communications director, etc.
- 3) If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at this meeting, the student(s) may file a formal written complaint to the SGA President. In the event that the grievance or complaint involves the SGA President, the complaint shall be filed with the Director of Student Activities.
